

From Death To Resurrection

By Pastor Dr. Ronnie Wolfe - April 5, 2012

They drug him to the Judgment Hall
And mocked his holy Name.
They dressed him in a kingly robe
And thought it was a game.

They accused him of the gravest crimes
And chanted he must die.
They fixed a borrowed, empty tomb,
His body there to lie.

Two men gave true testimony
His glory truly told.
One a thief upon a cross
And a soldier true and bold.

Then from his strange and stately pose
Upon the cruel tree
He gave his life a ransom for
A sinner just like me.

He lay there in the borrowed tomb.
His death would be his own;
And from his gnarly cloak of death
