

Crossing Over

What is this land we live in? Is it bad, or is it good?
All we do is sit around, do our job, and eat our food.
Many things are beautiful, and many to discover;
But at the end there's this one thing: this thing of crossing over.

We enjoy our pleasures, and many are employed,
But at the end there is a fact: we all will be deployed;
Deployed to fit the Master's plan to leave this cumbered earth
And set our feet on higher ground and seek out Heaven's worth.

I see now glory of His face and saints sit all around.
Many great things can be seen and treasures to be found.
Forever I shall search for them and find perhaps a few,
For things are greater every day, and blessings ever new.

So come with me and visit God on His celestial shore,
Faint not your heart upon the earth, but seek for blessings more.
They are in Heaven for everyone who trusts in Heaven's plan
To save the lost who trust in Him, dwell safe in Heaven's land.

Think much upon the work of Christ and trust His blood to save.
He is the Savior of the world, His sovereign will to praise.
By faith in Christ you can be saved, and then you will discover
That dying is not all that bad, we're merely crossing over.
