

The Lighthouse

There is a Lighthouse shining bright To bring to us the Gospel light.
It stands above the human mind And heals the heart of every kind
With Jesus as its founding goal To find the saint and make him whole.
There is no other Lighthouse fame Like Jesus and His lovely name.

The Lighthouse shines within the way And leads us to eternal day.
It shines a path to Heaven's shore Where sin and sorrow live no more.
And on that path I straightly trod To that holy place of God,
Where there I'll be forevermore And live upon that lovely shore

To be with Christ, my saving Lord, And feast on his eternal word
Forgetting all the world behind And peace and safety I will find.
Now look upon that Lighthouse still That stands upon that yonder hill,
That goes abroad, that Gospel light, And sees us through the lonely night.

To meet our friends and loved-ones there In that great land of wonders fair,
And spend our time with family fine with invitation "Come and dine."
Come yet, behold that Lighthouse bright; It's Jesus on His lofty height
To rid us of our greatest sin; Then Heaven waits to bring us in.
